PROFILE

Nicholas G. Daller focuses his practice on insurance coverage, casualty litigation, and commercial litigation matters as well as pre-suit client support and counseling. Nicholas joined Stewart Smith in 2020.

Before joining Stewart Smith, Nick practiced at a prominent toxic tort litigation and product liability defense firm in Philadelphia where he represented clients ranging in size from small corporations to fortune 500 companies. Through this representation, Nick participated in extensive plaintiff and expert witness depositions, developed cases for trial, and provided successful litigation support for trial counsel.

Since 2011, Nick has served as Editor for three regularly published legal reference books published by Wolters Kluwer. These books are: Tort Desk Reference, Product Liability Desk Reference and Business Tort, a Fifty State Guide. These publications are designed to give a concise summary of the different tort laws in each of the fifty states.
